

Vytenis Navickas

Curriculum Vitae

I believe in personal growth, healthy lifestyle and sharing life with others. These beliefs led me to become a professional poker player, an avid traveler and a business developer. Poker taught me to work independently, manage stress, take responsibility, embrace mistakes. During my travels all around the world, I learned to communicate with different types of people and deal with unexpected. During my leisure time I am managing american football team Kaunas Dukes. Also I am currently learning web development where I seek to transfer my abilities to learn and perform at the highest level.
